

EASTER SEAL CAMPAIGN TO START MAR. 10

The Will county chapter of the Illinois Association for 'Crippled Children' are sponsoring the 1955 Easter Seal campaign in Will county. The campaign starts March 10 and continues to and including Easter Sunday, April 10. This is part of the annual campaign, to be held throughout the nation at this time.

The Will county office is located at 105 N. Chicago st., Joliet, Room 204. L. A. Reinking is president.

This is the first time an office has been established in Will county, the office having been opened in January. In previous years the drives for Will county were conducted through the state, and all moneys were sent to the state and then returned to Will county as the help was needed. With the establishment of the local chapter office it will be handled differently. The money received will be kept here, with the exception of 10% which will be sent to the state to help state work at large.

Through the establishment of the Joliet chapter they now have employed a therapist, Miss Opal Cutler. Miss Cutler has had five years experience in therapeutics at Hines hospital. Among her duties will be visiting homes and answering calls to aid children and adults who need therapy.

There are many crippled children and men and women from all walks of life who are grateful for the help they have received from the Will county chapter of the Illinois Association for Crippled Children. Because of this aid they have been converted from total helplessness to a position of self-sustaining live and usefulness. Many of them now do typing, filing and general office work.

The officers of the Will county chapter in addition to Mr. Reinking, president, are: Mrs. D. V. Forester, Lockport, secretary; and Wm. Wandry, of the Union National Bank and Trust Co., Joliet, treasurer.

The above are also included on the board of trustees, with the following:

Stuart Krosch, Joliet attorney; James T. Joliet, Federal Savings and Loan Assn.; Dan Albrecht, Joliet Herald-News; Mrs. Robert Barber, Joliet; Miss Angela Bosch, Central Trades and Labor Council, Joliet; Miss Jessie Ernst, principal of Washington school, Joliet; Ed Harper, JTHS high school faculty; Miss Ann Hauser, Public Health department, Joliet; Earl Leimbacher, Willis Maltby, M. R. Makin, Art Smith, W. R. Smythe, W. H. McDaniels, all of Joliet; Mrs. Myrtle Reed, Wall Co. chapter American Cancer Society; Lee Russell, publisher Peotone Vedette; Robert Seeley, publisher Manhattan American; Mrs. Harold Vaughan, Plainfield, Harold Heyerman, Peotone, Mrs. Belle Birkett, Plainfield, and Sheldon Hauck, New Lenox; Lawrence Bittermann, president of the National Bank.

Medical advisers for the local chapter are: Dr. Leimbacher, Dr. John Kinney and Dr. Leon Gardner.

Portray Life Of Stephen Foster At Mokena PTA Meet

The monthly meeting of Mokena PTA was held Tuesday evening, Feb. 22, in the school gym. Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel, principal, announced that a milk program was started Feb. 21 for the daily delivery of milk to the school by the local dairy. For this service, each child is asked to pay three cents per day, or 15 cents per week. The milk comes in cardboard containers, which the child may dispose of after finishing lunch. Mrs. Cappel stated she would appreciate it if parents whose children bring their lunch and who desire to take advantage of this milk program would make payment a week in advance, to facilitate record keeping.

Mr. H. Wrath announced that the last home basketball game of the season will be played in the gym Monday, Feb. 28, and Mrs. Shoop, PTA president, announced that two trophies will be awarded March 19 when the school board plays the school teams. She asked for a vote from the audience authorizing the PTA to purchase the trophies. Her request was unanimously approved.

The evening's program, which was very clever and which sparkled with wit, was under the direction of Mr. Glenn Meier, choir director and eighth grade teacher, who showed great talent for a production of this kind. It was divided into two parts. Part I was a takeoff of a popular TV show. It was entitled, "This Was Your Life, Stephen Collins Foster." Frederick Keiser portrayed the part of Stephen Foster, and Mrs. Foster was portrayed by Susan Perry. Old Black Joe was portrayed by Billy Sayers.

During the program Mr. Meier told of the songs the famous composer wrote - songs which have become part of the American tradition - and the choir sang them, beautifully. Songs by the chorus included Oh, Susanna, Old Black Joe, Old Folks at Home, Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground, My Old Kentucky Home Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair and Beautiful Dreamer.

The second part of the program consisted of the chorus, sixth, seventh and eighth grade students, who sang several selections. The singing was outstanding, especially considering the short time that Mr. Meier has had to develop the chorus, and indicates that both students and director can be expected to go a long way in music. Some who attended said the program was the best one given by the PTA this year. Needless to say, Mr. Meier won the trophy for room count.

Refreshments were served by the fifth grade, for which Mrs. D. Ronan is room mother.

The chorus is planning on giving their first recital some time in May.

Reader's Viewpoint

Feb. 28, 1955
Mrs. Margaret M. Semmler
Editor and Publisher
Semmler Newspapers
Dear Mrs. Semmler:

I was a bit surprised at the response contained in a letter from two of your readers which you published in a recent edition under the heading "Readers Viewpoint" and concerned the recent fox hunts in Orland township.

It would be utterly ridiculous to assume that men who can not handle a gun properly and who indulge in promiscuous shooting would be permitted on such a hunt because of the danger they would represent to the other hunters. It is further ridiculous to assume that men on foot can chase and torment the wily fox. This could be true in England where fox hunting is a leading sport and is conducted on horseback, but the ease with which a fox can put distance between himself and his pursuers on foot probably accounts for some getting away with the pellets in their hides instead of where they were intended.

As most of us know, the fox is considered by many as the most crafty of all beasts of prey and because of the ravages he commits on domestic animals and on some fruits has caused himself to become the constant object of persecution. He destroys grapes, devours honey, sucks eggs, carries off poultry etc.

His den is usually situated under ground and the roots of trees and is furnished with proper outlets. He stays in his lair during the day and hunts from sunset until early morning.

He is remarkably clever in avoiding traps and poisons bait and because of the various outlets to his den easily outwits the single hunter. Thus it seems that the most effective way to hunt fox is for organized groups of men to hunt together.

Since the fox is very susceptible to rabies and is a known transmitter of the condition, it is even more desirable that he be destroyed.

I have wondered if the writers of the letter in question have ever destroyed a mouse or rat? If so I wonder if the methods used were any the less cruel or sadistic than the methods used by hunters in destroying the fox?

In closing, I should like to say that if the fox hunters should ever let out our way, we know they are coming, there will be cake and hot coffee waiting for them.

Sincerely,
Violet Mrosek,
Alpine, Orland township

Dairy Industry
At Annual Meeting

Will County Dairy Service annual meeting was held Feb. 22, at St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, Mokena. About ninety persons attended the dinner that preceded the business meeting. Rev. Reimann gave the invocation.

Dr. Karl Gardner, of the dairy department of the University of Illinois, the speaker, gave a highly entertaining and informative picture of the dairy industry as of today. He brought out that the dairy business was undergoing it's toughest times. It is worse now than in the depression years in that at that time everything was slow and at a standstill, whereas now most other businesses are booming.

The amount of dairy products in storage remain about the same - of course, it is constantly being rotated, but the quantity is quite steadfast.

Milk prices are at the present time lower to the farmer and higher to the consumer. Milk is at a reasonable price in proportion to other foods; but still not cheap enough.

Dr. Gardner pointed out that 26% of the dairy animals in Illinois are bred artificially. This is helping to make our cows more efficient. In the past 25 years, there has been a 25% increase in production. Credit goes towards a better feeding and breeding program.

Mrs. Frances Morse

Born in New Lenox township 80 years ago, she was the wife of the late Erno Morse who died in 1927. The couple lived in Homer township for many years, their last farm home being the one which is now occupied by the Bruce Andersons. She moved to Joliet after the death of her husband and made her home with her brother, Edward Bartie and her sister, Mrs. Hattie Morse, who survive.

She also leaves a son, Clarence, of North Hollywood, Cal., and a daughter Mrs. Harry Biermann of Joliet and several grandchildren.

MOKENA TO HAVE NEW SUPER
MART ON WOLF ROAD BY AUG. 15

All members were present at the Mokena village board meeting Tuesday night, with the exception of Russell Anderson. Two residents of Revere road in Mokena were also present. They asked to have stone put on the low spots on this road. Revere road is a new road in the northwest corner of the McIntosh subdivision, and is not yet in good shape, so the board agreed to give temporary relief with stone until such time as the job can be properly done.

A report was made on vehicle owners in Mokena who have not yet secured their license stickers. The discount period for this terminated March 1. From now on the full rate of $5.00 will be charged.

Some complaints have been made about dogs running loose. Police Officer Vernon Bormet is taking care of this situation.

In regard to work to be done on the streets and alleys in the village, Mayor Searf is to consult with R. L. Gjerde, engineer of the Mumford Engineering firm of Chicago Heights, to get his recommendations.

Ten-day notices are to be sent to water users who are delinquent.

Suggestions were made to charge fees for electric and plumbing inspections in new homes while under construction, in addition to building permits.

Those rumors you have been hearing about a new building at Orland Park this year are true. The Andrew Corporation, manufacturers of electronic products, with headquarters at 363 E. 75th st., Chicago, are going to erect a 39,800 square foot addition to Building A in Orland, increasing to 54,300 square feet the total area under one roof. The new building will constitute an extension to Building A on the north side, and will be 142 feet wide, the same as the present building, by 280 feet long. Construction will start just as soon as the company can get the drawings made and the contracts let. They are hopeful of getting into the building by October 1, 1955.

"It takes a little courage to embark on a building program at this particular moment when our backlog is lower than it has been for two and a half years," says C. Russell Cox, manager of the company, "but after taking a long and careful look at the market we are convinced that a big upturn is coming, probably within a very few months."

It is expected that early in the summer most of the engineering staff now at 75th street will be transferred to the laboratory at Orland Park.

"Eventually," says Mr. Cox, "we hope to move all manufacturing operations to Building A at Orland. While the timing of this move has not yet been determined, it seems likely that everything except soft cable production will be relocated there sometime in 1956. Most office work will remain at 75th street for an indefinite time. For the long run, our goal is to re-establish the entire operation at Orland Park, just as fast as circumstances permit."

SQUARE DANCE

Frankfort Park board will conduct a square dance in the Frankfort school gym this Saturday night, March 5 starting at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to join in the fun.

Appearing also before the board were Robert Fredin and Ralph Thorsen of Frankfort, to ask for a building permit to erect a super-mart on Wolf road, between the VFW hall and Swanburgs Farm and Implement Co. This building is to be 42 by 80 ft. in size, of concrete block and brick construction, with a glass front, and to conform to all building ordinances. They plan to provide ample and easily accessible parking space, which will be black-topped. The building will be called "Mokena's Model Super-Mart," and will be supplied by the Gary Wholesale company. They plan to open this mart August 15.

Mr. Fredin is the contractor and will erect the building and Mr. Thorsen will be the proprietor. At present he is the manager of the meat department of a chain store at Oak Lawn, and was formerly employed by Swift and Co. in Chicago.

The board adopted an ordinance providing that any contractor who does work on streets, alleys, sidewalks and public grounds in Mokena must first post a $20,000 bond.

Following is Representative Sprague's reply, which speaks for itself:

Feb. 3, 1955

General Assembly
State of Illinois
69th Session
Special House
Reapportionment Committee
Feb. 5, 1955

Mr. J. H. Quick
29 N. Edwards
Northlake, Illinois
Dear Mr. Quick:

Your sincere letter of Feb. 3rd deserves a prompt and clear answer.
I am writing this on stationery of the Special House Reapportionment Committee which was created by House Resolution No. 18 adopted January 10, 1955. The personnel of this Committee was appointed by the Speaker of the House. This Special Committee should be distinguished from the regular Elections and Reapportionment Committee of the House to which any bills pertaining to Reapportionment will be referred for hearing, consideration and recommendation.

In accordance with established practice and in accordance with what you and I know to be proper practice, any and all private citizens, groups or organizations will have full opportunity to be heard before any recommendation is made or action taken by the regular Committee - which Committee, incidentally, has not yet had even a single meeting of any kind. I feel certain that similar public meetings will be held in due course before the appropriate Senate group.

But what is the best procedure to assure full, intelligent and effective public hearings? Suppose you were asked to appear before the Special House Committee next Tuesday to give your views on Reapportionment. Could you do more than tell us you want a fair and honest redistricting carried out in conformity with the intent of the Reapportionment Amendment? Before setting public hearings wouldn't it be helpful to you and others sincerely interested in this complex problem to have before you a tentative set of maps which you could study and then be in a position to be specific in your criticism, suggestions or approval? The preparation of such tentative maps and their wide dissemination for study before public hearings seemed so practical and helpful that that course is being followed by the Special House Committee.

Insofar as I know and believe, any report of not holding public hearings in line with the foregoing program is pure bunk. I take it that some such report inspired your letter.

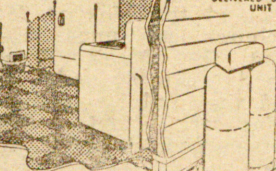

To answer your final question—I have not lost faith in my constituents. On the contrary, I intend that they and all citizens of our State shall have full opportunity to be heard on Reapportionment—also, that they shall have an opportunity to be equipped with information (tentative maps, etc.) which will enable them to understand in detail what is proposed, so that they may be constructively articulate and effective in their criticism, suggestions and recommendations.

We all have a complex and arduous task to perform. I am confident it will be done in accordance with sound principles to which each major political party is pledged.

Sincerely,
Arthur W. Sprague
P.S. I'm sure you will remember that over 100 counties are involved in this problem. Also, that in our own suburban area there will be seven Representative Districts instead of one, and in Chicago twenty-three instead of eighteen.

The number of downstate districts must be reduced by three. These districts will be subject to revision in later years in accordance with Reapportionment Amendment.

Small Bugs Do Great Harm

This bug is really a tiny granary weevil, much enlarged. Granary weevils do great damage in many farm grain bins. Stop them and save your profits.
The granary weevil is a small insect. If you could combine all the granary weevils in a grain storage bin into one single large insect, they might be as large as a dog. In a large, commercial grain storage, if they were not controlled, they might add up bigger than any living animal. Small as each one is, in numbers they do great damage.
If they were as large as in this picture, you could readily see their damage. You certainly would not have one around, destroying the harvest from your year's work.
Modern grain fumigants control these insects easily.
Soon after the grain goes into storage, apply a fumigant over the top of the grain in the storage bin. It will vaporize, and the vapors will penetrate the grain, killing even the eggs and those insects inside grain kernels. (The granary weevil shown enlarged above is often found hidden entirely inside grain kernels at some time in its life.)
To protect the vital top layer of the grain, and to help keep it free of serious insect damage, use a fumigant containing ethylene dibromide. For details, check with your county agent.

New Life in Christ

Lesson for March 6, 1955

THE human race is a strange mixture of friendship and quarrels. People can't get along without one another, or with one another either. People flock together in all sorts of clubs and organizations and yet many of these gatherings of people either spend their time fighting some other groups, or even fighting among themselves. The trouble is that most bonds uniting men are neither deep nor strong enough to stand the strains of life.

Dr. Foreman life places on them. Business partnerships break up at the breath of failure; political combinations are as fragile as old china; while as for international alliances, most people have now forgotten that ten years ago Russia was counted one of our best friends and Germany our worst enemy.

The True Center

There is one fellowship, and just one, which is world-wide, which has cemented persons and peoples of the most diverse kinds, which has endured past the dying of innumerable other bonds and unions. This closest of all the bonds known on earth is the fellowship of Christian love. If some romantic person rises to ask if the bond of love between man and his wife is not the strongest tie between human beings, it must be pointed out that the records of the divorce courts show that the marriage bond is much less likely to break down where husband and wife are both practicing Christians—that is to say, it is Christian fellowship that keeps marriage-fellowship from breakdown. Now what makes the fellowship of true Christian love so strong? It isn't that Christians are so much more lovable than other persons. The secret is not in the Christians, it is in Christ. Why do iron filings gather so closely together around a magnet? Take the magnet away and they scatter easily. Take Christ out of the church and it soon falls apart in indifference and even bitter quarrels. "We love, because he first loved us," is the secret of right Christian fellowship.

Breaking Barriers

We have many barriers in modern life which divide us into tight groups, misunderstanding and often misunderstanding one another. There are management and labor, urban and rural, adults and adolescents, white and Negro, high and low salary-bracket, and so on. The fact is that none of these barriers is anywhere nearly so strong as was the line, in early Christian times, between Jew and Gentile, or between master and slave. These were simply uncrossable barriers. Master and slave, Jew and Gentile, were not class distinctions, they were iron-clad castes. The most astounding thing about the Christian church, in its fresh early years,—astounding even to leaders like Paul—was that these caste-lines had been erased in the Christian fellowship. Jew and Gentile remembered only that they both loved the same Christ who had died for all. Master and slave met as brothers when they became Christians. The sharpest human divisions faded in the light of the cross. So it is today. People who live in segregated churches, whether the segregation-line is economic of Christian fellowships that cross these human lines by the divine force of Christian love.

Questions for Church Members

The final test of a church, whether it is a true church,—whether a particular congregation has a right to call itself a part of Christ's true church,—the final test is that fellowship. It would be a good idea for church members to give themselves a stiff examination on this line. Do the members of this church treat one another in a more brotherly way than outsiders do? Are social, racial, economic class-lines drawn between this and other churches, even inside the church itself, or is this one place where all meet on one common ground? Do the members share with one another, and if so, what do they share? Is there for example a sharing in prayer? If one member has had a high experience, do others hear about it? If one needs the other's prayers, is he free to say so, and why? Would a stranger to this church get the impression that this is a group gathered for convenience only, or a genuine fellowship of love?

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

At the Tinley Park Girl Scout Neighborhood meeting held at the school Feb. 22, troop roll call gave indication that Scouting is growing by leaps and bounds. In the near future another Brownie troop will have to be organized to take care of the girls who will be seven years of age and wish to become Brownies. To date there still are several vacancies in troop enrollment.

Mrs. Doris Rich, chairman of our Ways and Means committee gave a very fine report on the recent Orenda magic show. The proceeds of this venture are gratifying in view of the many other activities that were scheduled for the same date. There still are several troops to check-in on ticket money. A final report will be given at the March meeting.

Discussion was held on how Girl Scout Sunday, March 6, might be observed. It was decided to have the neighborhood chairman write each minister in the Village and surrounding area requesting them to recognize the organization on this Sunday. The girls are asked to attend their church in uniform with their parents.

The annual Cookie sale will again be conducted here in Tinley Park with Scouts taking orders the last week in March and making delivery the week of April 15. Cookie Day will be April 23rd. Co-chairman for Tinley Park Neighborhood are Mrs. Harold Zobac and Mrs. Harold Clement, assisted by Mrs. Z. Blitvich.

Tray favors for St. Francis Hospital in Blue Island will be made by troop 238, Mrs. A. Brand leader; troop 267, Mrs. M. Benson, leader; troop 315, Mrs. J. Chenev leader and troop 412, Mrs. H. VerWev leader. St. Patrick's day will be the motif used. They are due the week of March 13. Information has been received concerning registration for Camp Manistee. All registrations must be made in person at the Council office in Harvey on the following dates: May 14, 21 and 28. There will be five sessions with open house for parents on the first Sunday of each session from 2 to 5 pm. No provision will be made at the dining area for visitors.

To date $10.21 has been received from eight local troops towards the Juliette Lowe World Friendship Fund. Three troops, 190, 412 and 267 are in the process of completing their miniature floats to receive their birthday pennies.

It is requested that each troop have a representative at the monthly neighborhood meetings thus enabling all troops to receive the necessary announcements on forthcoming activities. Mark the date of March 22 as the next meeting.

SENIOR GIRL SCOUTS HONORED AT TEA

At a very impressive ceremony Feb. 21 held at the Tinley Park school, Girl Scout troop 268 received their five year pins and the Senior Scout pin. Mrs. Martha Dini and Mrs. Shirley Blaylock, leader and co-leader made the presentation.

Neighborhood chairman, Ruth Jochum, extended congratulations to the Scouts and leaders on their achievement. There are only three Senior troops in the South Cook County Council. Tinley Park Neighborhood can well feel it an honor to be one of them.

Two adult committeemen were invested with the lighting of the ten candles, signifying the ten Scout laws, and giving of the Scout Promise. A very fine presentation and retirement of colors was given by five Intermediate Girl Scouts from Troop 334 with Mrs. N. Schulien as leader.

Dainty refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table which was centered with a three tier cake bearing the troop inscription. Mrs. H. Francis, Council consultant and Mrs. P. L. Jochum, neighborhood chairman poured.

Mothers of the Senior Scouts were the special invited guests. The Senior Scout pins were provided through the courtesy of Ralph Dini, local Red Comb Feed dealer.

Nickel Production At NEW HIGH

Production of nickel by the free world in 1954 reached an all-time high estimated at 390,000,000 pounds—about 50,000,000 pounds greater than the 1953 total, and about 50 per cent above the pre-Korean 1949 output. Over-all production by Canadian producers of about 320,000,000 pounds last year also surpassed any previous year and accounted for over 80 per cent of the free world's output.

Bremen Grabs 4th Spot In State Wrestling Meet

Two Bremen high grapplers, Bob Slevnik and Bill Schram, captured fourth place honors in the state wrestling meet held at Champaign February 24-26. Edged out 4-3 for third place, Schram fell 15 seconds short of winning the match on riding time from his New Trier opponent. In his opening bout, Bill lost to Don Taylor of Pekin who went on to cop the state 165 lb. runner up spot.

Bob Slevnik dropped his third place match to Ken Boose of Tilden Tech. In other contests Bob suffered a defeat at the hands of Russ Wootlach, this year's 112 pound state champion, but decided foes from Wood River, Rock Island and New Trier.

Bremen's one other entry in the state tourney was Lloyd Landry, 127 lbs. After pinning a lad from Dunbar High of Chicago in his opening match, Lloyd was eliminated by Reavis' Oscar Beroulet who eventually took a fourth place medal.

Well pleased with his team's record of 9 wins and four losses through the past season, Coach Art Suchomel highly praised his entire squad with special recognition given to Slevnik and Schram for their performance at Champaign.

L-W Teachers Stress Current Events

It is often said that "what you do not know won't hurt you." However, the teachers at Lincoln-Way high school believe that in the area of current events, what we do not know may hurt us all very much. The social studies department is especially conscious of current events as evidenced by the statements below recently voiced by teachers in the department.

Marcus Aurelius once said, "He who knows not the world knows not his own place in it." So that young people will know their place in the world, we feel that they should form the habit of keeping "up on the news" while still in school. As adult citizens, they will need to understand important local, state, national, and international issues in order to vote wisely. And, with talk of a constitutional amendment giving voting rights to 18 year olds, it becomes even more important to start the current events training early.

In studying history, both current events and the subject matter mean more when they are related. Our objective is not only to teach new facts, but also to teach students the skill of using facts to arrive at well-informed decisions. Students need help in learning to explore all sides of an issue before arriving at a decision. Also, the need to be willing to change a decision when new evidence appears.

Instruction in how to study news includes help in getting facts from maps and graphs and how to interpret cartoons. Maps are particularly important in 1955 to understand the worldwide nature of our problems. Learning new terms also is important. Words like "bipartisan" and "coexistence" require special explanation to help understand world events today.

Students are encouraged to develop the habit of using all the news media available in their homes, radio, TV, newspapers, magazines, etc. In addition, the U. S. History students subscribe to a special student newspaper, Our Times, which presents news adapted to the interest and maturity levels of students. Parents, as well as teachers, can play a big part in developing better citizens by helping the students take full advantage of all means available for becoming better informed citizens.

Teachers who teach subjects in the social studies department include the following: Freshmen social studies, Earl Dieken, department chairman, and Jonas Lashmet; world history, Paul LeVinn; U. S. history, Theresa Hartman and Ralph Wright; economics and geography, Howard Jackson; and senior social problems, Earl Dieken.

Invite Golf Course Managers To Special Showing

Illinois Lawn Equipment, Inc., 9919 W. 143rd place, Orland Park will hold a special showing March 17 for all golf course superintendents in the Chicago area. «Faculty representatives will be on hand and will demonstrate and answer questions on all products handled by Illinois Lawn Equipment. Refreshments will be served and awards made.

Eastern Will Co. Area Council Of PTA Meets Today

The meeting of the Eastern Will County Area Council of the PTA, scheduled for Thursday, March 3rd will be held at 8 p.m. at the Manhattan grade school. Mr. Jay W. Bissell will lead a discussion on human relations in the home and in the school.

So. Cook Council Girl Scouts To See Cinerama

Girl Scouts of the South Cook council will take a trip to Chicago's loop Saturday, March 5, to see "This is Cinerama." Miss Florence Schlott, of Blue Island, Executive Director and Mrs. Bernard Alpert, Program Director from neighboring Homewood, have completed arrangements with William Brevalier, manager of special sales for Cinerama. There will be a special 10:30 a.m. performance of the new medium film for the Council at Elletts Palace theatre on the 5th and another March 12. The second date was settled when Miss Schlott and Mrs. Alpert realized that they would not be able to accommodate all their scouts at one show.

The Palace is the only theatre within 300 miles of Chicago where Cinerama will ever be shown. Now in its 84th week of the Chicago run, the show has broken every box office record, both in Chicago and nationally.

Cinerama is the one new medium in the film industry. No other process thus far has been able to give its audience the feeling that they are right in the picture. To quote Arthur Godfrey: "Thirty seconds after the picture starts, you are no longer looking at a film of a place—you are there! It's the most terrific thing you ever saw in your life!"

Boy Scouts Go Roller Skating

The first outing sponsored by the newly organized Boy Scouts Mother's Auxiliary took place recently with an evening of fun at the "Mirador" roller rink. Transportation for the 31 Boy Scouts was provided by Scoutmaster Cloud, Mr. Gester, Mr. Wilek, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Albright, Mrs. Zowadzki, Mrs. Kleber and Mrs. McManus.

This organization was organized by mothers of the Scouts to provide additional recreation for the boys and to stimulate interest and parent participation in scouting activities. All mothers of Boy Scouts are invited to attend the next meeting on March 3, at the Tinley Park school at 8 pm.

For additional information, call Mrs. Ida Haber, at KE 2-2903.

Boy Scout Blue And Gold Banquet Is Tremendous Success

Nearly 225 men, women and children attended the sixth annual Blue and Gold banquet held last Saturday night at the Tinley Park grammar school. This was the largest crowd to honor the Cubs since the organization was started six years ago.

This proves beyond doubt that the parents are as enthusiastic in making our Cub Scout unit a success as well as its committee and den mothers.

After dinner the parents and Cubs participated in games, and prizes were given to the winners. Prizes were awarded to parents Mrs. Clark and Bill Wheeler. Cubs awarded prizes were Ken Schmudde and John Balheiser.

Certificates of Appreciation were presented to the following mothers: Mrs. Elaine Gerworth, Mrs. Mary Martello, Mrs. Kay Crain, Mrs. Holly Johnson, Mrs. Fern Mager, Mrs. Jane Schmudde, Mrs. Alma Kimmel, Mrs. Sue Nesci and Mrs. Jane Meakim.

Sincere thanks are extended the following merchants of Tinley Park for their generous donations: Vogt's Dept. store, Ben Franklin, Service Bakery, Kleber's bakery, Borden's Milk and Western Tire.

Maue school's third annual hobby show, sponsored by the PTA, is scheduled for the next regular meeting, which will be held at the school, Wednesday, March 9 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Milton Guether, who will show some of the dolls from her interesting doll collection, will be the principal speaker.

A gold cup will be awarded the best exhibit. Silver cups will be awarded the best exhibit in each of the two classrooms. Ribbons will also be awarded.

There will be an election of officers during the business meeting.

Maue School News

First graders have been reading several rabbit stories. David Allen Klepper brought his rabbit to our room Friday. After a discussion on the care of rabbits several members of the class fed our furry visitor carrots and lettuce leaves.

Second graders are quite thrilled with the wonderful selection of new books we've just received from the Springfield library. All the boys and girls are grateful to the Maue PTA which sponsors this Springfield library project at our school.

The third grade geography class drew illustration of common reptiles of today and also some of the horrible looking cold blooded reptiles of long ago. These drawings have been made into booklets.

"Spiders and their Habbits" is the subject of current interest in our third and fourth grade science class. Drawings are being made and stories written about six of the most common spiders studied. We hope to be able to recognize some of these eight legged fellows when we see them.

The film "The King Who Came to Breakfast" featuring Bill Baird's marionettes proved to be quite interesting especially since some of the social studies classes have been studying about Egypt where wheat was raised 15,000 years ago. The marionettes told the story and showed how wheat, The King of Grain, has come to play a vital role in our lives.

Alpine 4-H News

CHRYSLER and IMPERIAL SHOW INCREASE OVER YEAR AGO
Retail sales of 1955 Chrysler and Imperial automobiles for the second 10-day period of February 1955, show an increase of almost 51 per cent over the same period a year ago, reports E. M. Braden, general sales manager, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

Dealers delivered a total of 4,612 cars to buyers during the second 10 days of February, 1955, compared to deliveries of 3,056 cars for the same period of 1954 - an increase of 50.9 per cent, Braden said. Deliveries for the first 20 days of February, 1955, totaled 8,196 cars - up 50.3 per cent over the 6,117 cars delivered in the same period last year.

Braden pointed out the delivery of 1955 Chryslers and Imperials is limited only by the factory's production and distribution schedules, which are continuing to rise.

SEVEN NEW MUNICIPALITIES INCORPORATED IN ILLINOIS

Seven new municipalities - six villages and one city - were incorporated in Illinois in the last two years, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter stated in announcing publication of the 1955 edition of the booklet, "Official List of Counties and Incorporated Municipalities of Illinois."

The new villages and city bring the state's total to 1,175, Secretary Carpenter said.

The villages incorporated in the two year period are Gifford and Royal in Champaign county, Albers in Clinton county, Middlebury in Kane county, Oreana in Macon county and Oak Grove Park in Woodford county. The city is Hometown in Cook county.

Australia is Building World's Biggest Stadium for Olympics

Australia is preparing for the 1956 Olympiad with many new construction projects, including the erection of a stadium to seat 120,000 people. A $5 million international village for visiting athletes and team officials is also part of the project.

In what is expected to be the biggest Olympiad since the war, the people from "down under" are demonstrating a hospitality of unequalled dimensions. They're building a complete village of 788 brick or concrete houses in 2, 3, 4 or 6 dwelling groups. The village will have its own bank, post office, medical centers and other facilities for foreign athletes and their staffs.

The organizing committee, backed by the Government of Australia and local municipalities, are backing the project with typical Australian enthusiasm. Visitors can expect a roaring welcome from the home folks here.

Nearly 5,000 athletes and officials will take part in the games. The traditional Olympic flame will be flown from Olympia to Cairns. Then, runners will carry the torch 2,750 miles to Melbourne. Queen Elizabeth is Patron-in-Chief of the 1956 games.

Facts and Figures—

For 22 years social planning has been the basic pattern of our Federal government program. Social planning has replaced the economic and ethical basis upon which the nation functioned for 150 years, and under which this nation became great.

Since social planning has become the pattern in Washington, our Federal government has become so big, so costly, and so paternalistic that it is high time to take stock, to "stop, look and listen."

In 1932 the Federal government had 600,000 civilian employees; today the Federal government has 2,300,000, civilian employees, about four times as many.

In 1932 the Federal government collected $2 billion in revenue, which was 5 percent of our national income. In 1953 the Federal government collected $70 billion in revenue, which was 23 percent of the national income.

In 1932 our total national debt was $11 billion; today it is around $278 billion.

In 1932 we paid out as interest on the national debt $220 million; today we pay out as interest on the national debt $6.8 billion.

In the face of the above facts the Administration—with the approval of the majority of Congress—proposes to continue the social planning program, and pay out more billions, that we do not have, for foreign aid, social security, international trade and all kinds of government adventures—ah! based upon increased debt, deficit financing, and deferred payments for our grandchildren to assume and pay.

When will the last straw "break the camel's back?" Which—Government Ownership or Private Ownership?

The recent annual report of the Tennessee Valley Authority reveals the fact that there has been a drop in the earnings the past few years because of "severe drought conditions and consequent low stream flows." Flood control was the original purpose of the TVA, and hydroelectric power was to be only a by-product. Now TVA has asked for eight steam plants to provide hydroelectric power. This means flood control is to be relegated to a secondary position in the TVA set up.

Private power in the T.V.A. area is entirely capable of meeting all future demand for power. The Edison-Yates contract is evidence of this fact. But T.V.A. - a government-owned and operated institution - wants no competition from a private-owned plant. So it is a choice between government-owned industry and privately-owned industry.

How Times Have Changed Under President "Teddy" Roosevelt! America enjoyed the respect of the world. Teddy's maxim was, "Speak softly but carry a big stick."

When the Moroccan bandit Raisuli captured an American citizen, Pericardis, and held him for ransom, President Roosevelt wired the Sultan of Morocco, "Pericardis alive or Raisuli dead." Pericardis was immediately released.

Today our government spends billions for foreign aid but hasn't the backbone to protect our own fighting men. We turn the job over to the United Nations.

The eleven American airmen - plus 931 other Americans - seized two years ago and held in Chinese Communist prisons in violation of the Korean truce terms constitute an excellent example of how times have changed.

What does President Eisenhower do about it? He says it is up to the United Nations - not up to the United States to act. The United States abdicates to the United Nations in this matter just as she abdicated during the Korean War when we recalled General MacArthur because the United Nations said we must prevent him from winning a victory over the Chinese Communists.

How times have changed!

In 1954, one among every 10 servicemen and women was given Red Cross help each month at a camp or hospital.

Babson Discusses

An Amazing Story

I am back here again for the winter and wish to tell of a tragedy occurring during my absence, although you may have read of it in your local newspaper.

Two Fatal Mistakes

This story involved: (1) A well-known and able lawyer living for many years in our community; (2) Two very respectable and intelligent well-to-do friends of mine; (3) Two Wills prepared by the said lawyer; and (4) A "trigger man" allegedly employed to murder one of my above two friends.

Now for the tragedy. The lawyer had apparently drawn up wills for these two friends. When he submitted them to the makers, they suggested certain corrections, asking the lawyer to have the wills retyped, and they would come in again shortly thereafter for signing. Fatal mistakes were apparently made by these intelligent people for not initialing each page. Nor did they take the signed wills with them to a place of deposit, so that they might be reread once each year. This would have entailed some bother, but this would have been nothing compared to the trouble which followed.

Importance of Executors

The lawyer, or someone allegedly slipped into the wills a clause leaving him a large sum of money. This could have been done during the retyping before the parties finally signed; or, being typewritten wills, a page could have been rewritten and slipped in after the signing. If, however, each will had been read again, finally signed, and taken home, the tragedy would not have taken place.

The lawyer also made himself executor of the two wills. This would give him advantage in collecting the money allegedly willed him and for controlling the balance of the money. Yet, to make an attorney executor is a common practice where banks with Trust Departments are not easily available.

A Murderer Is Now Needed As the wills had allegedly been "fixed" to leave the attorney large sums of money and he was to be executor, he needed only to wait until one of my two friends should die to get his money. Both were apparently in good health. Hence, if the lawyer were in a hurry for his money, a murderer would seem necessary. To complete the story, I now depend upon witnesses at the trial just ended.

The County Prosecutor claimed the attorney employed a supposedly respectable contractor to secure the "trigger man" to murder one or both of my friends. This contractor who has been found guilty although he has appealed, claiming his innocence) is allegedly to have employed a negro to do the killing. This negro suddenly turned State's evidence.

Attorney Found Dead

Owing to the above or other reasons, the attorney was found shot, near the door of his home here in Babson Park, on the morning of June 9, 1954. Whether he committed suicide, or was shot by someone who feared exposure, I do not know.

At any rate this death eliminated the attorney from the picture. Thereupon the able County Prosecutor concentrated upon finding the "trigger man" and any others connected with the deal. This was the status when I arrived here recently before the convictions.

Lessons To Be Learned

Apparently my two friends had a very close call. If one had first been killed, without in any way connecting the attorney therewith, the attorney would have probated the will, collected the money, and legally closed the case. He was supposed to be a brilliant lawyer in our community and, of course, may have been innocent. I leave to God the final verdict.

I tell this story in order that my many readers may ask themselves these five very important questions:

- (1) Should I ever sign a paper without reading it before signing?
- (2) Should I sign typewritten documents without signing or initialing each sheet so that no one sheet can be taken out and changed?
- (3) Should I leave my will in possession of any single individual, however honest?
- (4) Should I let a year pass without rereading my will?
- (5) Should I fail to encourage in every way newspapers, banks, colleges, and information centers to teach about wills and their great importance?

Girl Scouts Of South Cook Council To See Cinerama

Girl Scouts of the South Cook Council will take a trip to Chicago's Loop Saturday, March 5th, to see "This Is Cinerama." Miss Florence Schlott, of Blue Island, Executive director and Mrs. Bernard Alpert, Program director of Homewood, have completed arrangements with William Brevall, manager of special sales for Cinerama. There will be a special 10:30 a.m. performance of the new medium film for the council at Eitel's Palace theatre on the 5th and another on March 12. The second date was settled.

when Miss Schlott and Mrs. Alpert realized that they would not be able to accommodate all their scouts at one show.

The Palace is the only theatre within 300 miles of Chicago where Cinerama will ever be shown. Now in its 84th week of the Chicago run, the show has broken every box office record, both in Chicago and nationally. Cinerama is the one new medium in the film industry. No other process thus far has been able to give its audience the feeling that they are right in the picture. To quote Arthur Godfrey - "Thirty seconds after the picture starts, you are no longer looking at a film of a place - you are there! It's the most terrific thing you ever saw in your life!"

Cinerama's unique achievement is due to the use of "peripheral vision" . . . that is it shows everything on the screen that the human eye ordinarily sees when looking at a scene in real life. Thus it produces a sense of depth and space, even of balance.

Inventor, Fred Waller, used a screen curved on an arc of 146 degrees, approximately the same as the vision of the human eye. To prevent light from bouncing back and forth from one side of a screen to the other he devised a revolutionary screen, lowered, like a vertical venetian blind.

But sight is only one half of the story. Cinerama employs stereophonic sound, too. It has seven omni-directional sound tracks and gives what the experts call "presence," the feeling of being right there where the sound originates.

The audience is engulfed with sight and sound as the film opens with the famous roller coaster sequence that takes you on a thrilling ride, careening around curves and plunging downhill at 90 miles an hour. Cinerama then takes them to Edinburgh Castle for a gathering of the Scotch clans amidst swirling kilts and clamorous bagpipes; to Spain for a bull fight and for folk dancing in the square. The audience attends a performance of "Aida" at the famous La Scala Opera house in Milan and goes to magnificent Schonbrunn palace in Vienna to hear the Vienna Boys' choir.

The magic of Cinerama three-eyed camera gives you a coast-to-coast view of America in a B-25 converted bomber with pilot, Paul Mantz, at the controls. The flight takes the audience over the skyline of New York, Niagara Falls, down over Chicago and into Kansas City. The plane then swoops up and over the golden wheat fields of Kansas, and on to the West Coast flying over the "mirror of Lake Mead and in daring flights, down, down into the twisting rocky canyons of Zion National Park. It is so real each person in the audience feels the movement of the plane.

"This Is Cinerama" is well worth the advance planning and the trip to Chicago for the girl scouts. Reservations may be made with troop leaders or at scout headquarters.

MILK IS WORTH 42 CENTS A QUART SAYS W. E. WINN

Butter is not a cheap product, and milk is worth 42 cents a quart for its nutritional value alone, a leading Illinois farmer told dairymen in the current issue of Howard's Dairyman.

Walter E. Winn, president of Pure Milk Association and a dairymen from Richmond, Ill., writes in the February 25 issue of Howard's Dairyman that "It's time for farmers to speak up."

Farmers have been unfairly criticized for high prices and for allowing waste through government support programs he said. "The public needs to be told," Winn said. Since 10 or 11 quarts of milk are required to make one pound of butter, customers have no right to expect a 75-cent a-quart for a 25-cent price, he said.

Winn quoted figures from the Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Benson. Compared with an equal amount of nutrients purchased in other foods, the nutritive value of a quart of milk is worth 42 cents to the customer he said.

Winn said that the dairymen's customers have been given new figures each week on the staggering load of dairy products carried by the government.

The $500 million of dairy products now on hand should not embarrass the dairy farmer. "A congressional committee reported subsidies of $300 million each to the airlines and maritime interest he said.

Other industry subsidies have amounted to billions. Since the end of World War II, industry received $40 billion. There was also an adjustment of $25 billion on war equipment, Winn said. "Isn't it time to put this half billion dollars in its right perspective?"

"Every one of the nation's 2,000,000 dairy farmers must be prepared to discuss the real facts of our industry with anyone he meets, Winn said.
